TEXAS TURFMAN CONTINUES TO FIGURE IM-PORTANTLY IN WINDSOR RESULTS.

Nettie Marchmont and Toy Boy Carry Texan's Colors to Victory-Messenger Boy Wins Edenwold Handicap.

Detroit, Mich., September 1.—J. W. Fuller, the Texas turfman, who has been playing an important part in the Windsor meeting, added to his list of local victories this afternoon by scoring a double with his promising two-year-old filly. Nettie Marchmont, and his fast sprinter, Toy Boy. Both horses had their work cut out to win, each being forced to stand a hard stretch drive. Toy Boy was favorite for his race and Nettie Marchmont was a well-backed second choice. The turfmen from the Lone Star State who are gathered here this fall made their presence felt in the ring in both instances.

ken-backed second choice. The turfmen from the Lone Star State who are gathered here this fall made their presence felt in the ring in both instances.

A majority of the finishes were close enough to be interesting and while the fields lacked quality, still they were of the evenly matched variety, which insured good contests. Light Wool, Judge Lassing and Malitine, all of which were outsiders in their faces, were among those that scored.

The Edenwold Handicap, named for Walter O. Parmer's farm near Nashville, Tenn., and the feature race of the program, found Messenger Boy the winner. This event was marked by keen speculation, several of the starters having an extensive following. Messenger Boy, well ridden, beat Bad News II. a length. The latter showed a lot of early speed this afternoon, something that he lacked in previous efforts.

Mortimer Mahoney received word from the Montreal Jockey Club that he had been selected as manager of the ring at Blue Bonnets this fall. Mr. Mahoney succeeds J. G. Cavanagh and the ring will be open to all reputable bookmakers.

If is understood that Fred W. Gerhardy, who will act as racing secretary at Marlboro and Norfolk, has been offered the position of clerk of the scales at Jacksonville.

Jockeys Deverich and Deavenport were suspended by the starter yesterday for three days.

Among the arrivals today were Sig Levy and William of Brien, two well-known Chicago bookmakers.

Jockeys J. Reid and Musgrave returned from Saratoga this morning. In explaining Love-Not's runaway before the start in the Futurity, Reid said: "Love-Not wore a Tiffany martingale when she left the paddock. She has the habit of throwing her head up and it was put on to enable me to control her, When she reached the barrier and pust as one of the starter's assistants removed the martingale site lunged through the barrier and all but unseated me. She did not run fast. She was lunging more than anything and I doubt if her gallop cut much figure in the result." It is understood that Reid may go from here to Ken may go from here to Kentucky to ride for E. R. Bradley.

Former jockey Vincent Foy was arrested yesterday and convicted this morning for giving a phoney ticket to a race-goer at Windsor.

Otto Townsend, at one time agent for the powerful Bennington & Burlew stable, was an arrival from Saratoga today. Mr. Townsend is now concerted with bookmaker Rod McMahon. The latter is due here tomorrow and will join the ranks of the layers on arrival.

Joseph McLennan received an offer from C. C. Campau, who has charge of the racing at Hawthorne Park, Chicago, to serve as racing secretary during the contemplated meeting at that point. On account of previous engagements with Canadian associations Mr. McLennan was forced to decline the offer. In the absence of definite information regarding those who are backing the venture and the lack of assurances that six days' racing will be given, many of the horsemen who had announced their intention of shipping have changed their plans and will instead go from here to Lexington or Montreal.

Radium Star, recently purchased by J. W. Burttschell from R. T. Wilson, Jr., got the better of his exercise lad this morning and, running away, fell and injured his shoulder so badly as to necessitate an enforced retirement for a couple of months.

Daera wrenched his middle tendon during the running of today's steeplechase and will be retired.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

William R. Midgley and Thomas E. Mannix will ip a carload of horses from Saratoga to the Blue mnets course.

T. H. Williams is expected to reach Chicago Sep-tember 15 on his annual trip east in the interest of California racing.

There will be a fall meeting of seven days at St. John, N. B., catering to the horses that have been patronizing the half-mile courses in Canada.

The oral layers who operated at Saratoga are reported to have lost heavily on the meeting. George Rose is credited with having dropped $30,000.

John Vitatoe, aged 25, of Owensboro, Ky., was fatally hurt by being thrown from Friendly Dan in a half-mile dash at the Boonville, Ind., fair races

James Hever and Charles Pfizer have arranged to ship their horses from Saratoga to Sheepshead Bay in a few days. Mr. Hever will race Charlie Har-grave and a few others at Marlboro and Pimlico. W. T. Ryan's Pharaoh will be rested at Sheepshead Bay for several weeks and will start in the Matron Stakes at Pimlico. George A. Bronder's Danfield will also be raced at the Baltimore meeting in October.

Frank M. Taylor, brother-in-law of S. C. Hildreth, has purchased Fauntleroy from James McLaughlin for $4,000, the amount of the reserve placed upon him at the recent paddock sale at Saratoga in which he failed to elicit a bid. James McLaughlin plans to open a public training stable at Gravesend.

John Hachmeister, general manager of the Latonia track, is at Saratoga soliciting stake entries. Mr. Hachmeister, who is also treasurer of the Niagara Raeing Association, which controls the Fort Eric track, says that the $10,000 Dominion Handicap will be run in October under the same assignments of weights as given out originally. He is counting on Fitz Herbert as a starter.

C. C. Campau, who will have charge of the racing

Fitz Herbert as a starter.

C. C. Campan, who will have charge of the racing at Hawthorne track next Monday, is expected to return today from his trip to Kentucky in quest of horses to furnish the racing. At the office of John J. Brittain, who is actively promoting Monday's racing venture, it was stated yesterday in response to an inquiry as to the prospects for a continuation of the racing at Hawthorne after Monday that nothing definite could be announced as yet.

LOUISVILLE STAKES FILL EXCELLENTLY.

Entry List of Large Proportions and Exceptional Brilliancy Is Already Assured.

Louisville, Ky., September 1.—At noon today 400 entries had been received by Secretary Lyman H. Davis for the ten stakes to be run during the coming fall meeting at Churchill Downs, beginning October 1. These events closed for entry at midnight of Wednesday, August 31, and delayed mails are sure to increase the total now in, but even as it stands at present there is an average of forty entries to each stake. Probably no western association, save in the days when Washington Park, Chicago, was in the zenith of its fame, ever had as brilliant an array of noted horses engaged in a series of stakes as the New Louisville Jockey Club will have this fall.

CALIFORNIA BREEDER FEELS ENCOURAGED.

Saratoga, N. Y., September 1.—The well-known California turfman and breeder of thoroughbreds, W. O'B. Macdonough, whose yearlings were sold in the paddock at Saratoga last week, is quoted as follows in relation to the prospects for the coming season at Oakland: "Everything points to a most successful season for the New California Jockey Club and preparations for the reception of an unusually large number of eastern horsemen were well under way when I left San Francisco two weeks ago. The racing atmosphere on the coast has cleared tremendously. When the season of 1909 was inaugurated it was a case of trying to keep the sport alive, but before the season was half over T. H. Williams saw his way clear to offer better purses, larger crowds, who were having some freedom of action, making it possible for the management to be more liberal. I never saw a community more eager for the continuation of the sport, and there is no doubt at all about California easily being in earnest in the effort to restore racing to its old-time prosperity and popularity. I am told by friends that there will be a revival of the sport in Tennessee, and the meeting here in Saratoga just closed and the prices year-lings and horses in training have brought, are most encouraging to men like myself who both breed and race."

LEXINGTON STAKES FILLING WELL.

Lexington, Ky.. September 1.—Secretary G. D. Wilson of the Kentucky Association reports that entries to the stake races to be run during the nine-days meeting at the Lexington track are coming in well and indications for a record-breaking meeting are growing stronger every day. Starter Mars Cassidy has notified Secretary Wilson that he will arrive here one week before the meeting begins and will bring his entire eastern crew with him.

EXODUS FROM NEW YORK TO CANADA.

Saratoga, N. Y., September 1.—S. C. Hildreth has definitely decided to take seventeen horses to Canada. R. F. Carman, who has kept on buying until he now has forty-six horses in training, will ship thirty of them to Canada and leave the others here in charge of one of his trainers. So far sixteen carloads have been booked for Montreal, which is quite as many as expected. The total number of horses going from here to Canada will probably be 225. Only horses ready to race are being sent. There has been some alarm at Montreal and Toronto about stabling, and some eastern owners who applied for stalls received telegraphic replies asking them to take less than the number asked for.

RACING STABLES REACH LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., September 1.—The racing stable of J. W. May, embracing Countless, Melisande, Far West, Gold of Ophir, Miss Nett, Danger Mark, Althorpe and Nosegay, arrived here this morning from Saratoga. The strings of John T. Ireland, Walter House and Walter Grater also came in.

BORROW WINS ANOTHER RACE.

London, Eng., September 1.—The Harrington Plate of 300 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, distance five furlongs, was run at Derby today and was won by H. P. Whitney's Borrow, by Hamburg—Forget. Gaflego was second and the Cocking Bell colt third. Stx horses started. Borrow is the leading moneywinner among American horses in England.
